AT ADAMS TODAY
Church Anniversary Celebrated.
The first Baptist church celebrated its 71st anniversary Thursday evening. There was a large attendance. The evening's program opened with a selection by Professor Palmer's juvenile orchestra. Rev. R. O. Sherwood of South Norwalk, Conn., offered prayer. Pastor Rev. H. B. Fossitt then said all were present to formally celebrate the 71st anniversary and to look backward. He exhibited a book containing the records of the Baptists in this section for 130 years. He said this was not really the oldest, but the second oldest, the oldest church having been organized at New Providence, now Chesbire.
Calvin Richmond was the next speaker. He began by speaking of the Shaftsbury association of Baptist churches, organized in 1780. Among them was the first Baptist church on Stafford's hill in Chesbire, then New Providence. The association held its first meeting there in 1788. The church had a membership of 48 in 1820. Later Elder Worden became pastor and under his care the membership grew to 117 and was flourishing until the building of Elder Leland's church in the west part of Chesbire, where the present church now stands.
The new church organized with 394 members and it was then that Peter Worden's church dwindled away. Mr. Leland was for 15 years pastor, then followed nine years without a pastor. In 1898 the North Adams Baptist church was organized. Then a third church was built in Chesbire, which is now Lanesboro. In 1821 the church at Stafford's hill closed. Mr. Richmond exhibited a foot-stone which had been used by his mother when a member of the Stafford's hill church, and closed with several interesting stories of the first pastor's work. Rev. R. O. Sherwood then said it was four years ago that he resigned as pastor of the local church. He reviewed the changes that had taken place and spoke of the different pastors who, paying a neat tribute to the present pastor.

Mr. Fossitt then showed records of the old church and said they had been transcribed and would be preserved as relics. He also exhibited a communion set of three pieces that were imported from England and were 125 years old. Owing to the lateness of the evening he said the other portions of the church history would be saved until a year from then. The celebration closed with a fine collation, which was served by the ladies.

A Narrow Escape.
Mrs. John S. Adams of Maple Grove had a narrow escape from injury Thursday evening. She was riding a bicycle down Depot street, accompanied by her husband and a lady friend. As they were passing the North corner of the Berkshire Mill No. 8, James Dean was driving west over Hoosac street. The place is a bad one and all view is cut off, and the result was Mrs. Adams collided with the horse. She grasped the harness and Dr. Dean, who was on the alert, stopped the horse just in time to avoid serious damage. Now that Park street is closed and more travel is done on these two streets it would be well for persons riding wheels to be cautious.

A Strong Team.
When the Daltons meet the Renfrews on the diamond at the North Adams fair grounds, Foresters' field day, Monday, July 5, they must either make a strong team or take a severe drubbing. Manager Curran of the Renfrews has secured an excellent team for that day and expects to be a sure winner. The makeup of the Renfrews will be: Catcher, Davis of Blackinton; pitcher, McBride, formerly with Belfast, Me.; 1st base, Walsh; 2nd base, El; short stop, John Hoffmann; left field, Joe Marsh; center field, Keyron Doyle; right field, Gus Smith. Daniel Dunn, formerly of the Lone Stars of Glen Falls, N. Y., will be on the bench.

Officers Elected.
The semi-annual meeting of the St. Jean Baptist society was held in their hall Thursday evening and the following officers were elected: President, Louis Lamoureux; vice-president, H. WILLIAMSTOWN.
New Farm Superintendent—Dropped Dead While at Work.
Dropped Dead While at Work.
Theophile Bourdeau, night watchman in the Williamstown Manufacturing company's mill, dropped dead of heart disease while at work in his garden at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning. He returned from the mill in the morning feeling as well as usual. He ate a hearty breakfast and after chatting awhile with his family he went into his garden to set out some tomato plants. He had worked but a short time when he suddenly fell forward upon his face. Help was quickly at hand and Mr. Bourdeau was dead before they arrived and it is believed his death was almost instantaneous. He never moved or spoke from the time he was seen to fall, although life was not wholly extinct when his wife and daughter reached him.
Mr. Bourdeau was a native of Canada, but had lived in this town 22 years, coming here from New York state, where he had lived for 10 years. For the last 10 years he has been employed as watchman in the mill, but owing to his advancing age the work was divided with another man lately and he watched only half time. His heart had probably been affected for some time, as he had one or two severe fainting spells while on duty in the mill. He was an industrious and respected man and his sudden death was a great shock to his family and a surprise to the community.
Mr. Bourdeau leaves a widow, two sons and seven daughters, Fred and Victor Bourdeau, Mrs. Maggie DeGronier, Mrs. Henry Royal, Emeline and Grace Bourdeau of this town, Mrs. Della Baker of North Adams, Mrs. Edna Baker of Florida and Mrs. Frank Clark of Lawrence. The funeral will be attended from St. Raphael's church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and the interment will be in the east cemetery.

What Do the Children Drink?
Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called Grain-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1/2 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.

WEST CUMMINGTON.
WEST CUMMINGTON, June 17, '07.
To the publishers of the NORTH ADAMS TRANSCRIPT, North Adams, Mass.: Gentlemen—In your paper published under date of June 10th, and under the heading West Cummington, appears an article relating to the postoffice contest in this village, which contains statements that are absolutely untrue, as well as others which are misleading, and I request that you give this communication a prominent place in your columns. The first statement is misleading, for my father, L. E. Bicknell, was postmaster here until his death, nine years ago, and was a life-long Republican, with the exception that he did not support Mr. Blaine for president in 1884, but voted for Mr. Cleveland, as did many other Republicans, some of whom are today prominent in the councils of the Republican party in state as well as national politics. The present incumbent is my mother, Lucretia T. Bicknell, who was during the last campaign, and is now, as advocate of the election of William McKinley. When your former correspondent alluded to the present incumbent's course in politics, I suppose that it was aimed at myself, but while I have been one who has always conceded the honesty and ability of President McKinley, the statement that I "came out for McKinley" last summer, or at any time, is absolutely false. It is true that I called myself a "Gold Democrat" at the opening of the campaign, and later supported the cause of Bryan and free silver, and I consider that as honest change in opinions needs no defense. These are the only corrections that I think it worth while for me to make, but I would like to take up enough space in your paper to state in regard to the contest for the postoffice, that the petition for the appointment of Mr. Tirrell, was secretly circulated, it being sent on to Washington a month before it was known to the majority of the patrons of this office. Four-fifths of the voters who are patrons of the office have since protested against the appointment of Mr. Tirrell, both to Congressman Wright and the post office department, and we have confidence enough in Mr. Wright and the department to expect that they will not remove a widow of a brave soldier who died from the effects of wounds received while fighting for the maintenance of the Union, when a large majority of the patrons do not want the change, and when those who do ask for it are inspired simply by personal spite. Your correspondent closes his remarks with the words, "and if it is to be settled from a political standpoint there can be no doubt as to the result." And I will close by saying that if it is to be settled from the standpoint of right and wrong, and if this administration is to keep its promises regarding the treatment of old veterans and their widows, there is no doubt as to the result.
Yours truly,
H. E. BICKNELL.
